The Americans - Glossary

2142 Words 9 Pages. Visions of America The importance of American landscape painting in the nineteenth century extended far beyond the borders of the art world. The nineteenth century in America was a paradoxical time in which great nationalism and “enormous self-confidence and optimism” merged with growing disunity (Wilmerding 54), and the glow of “progress” was inextricably tied to the destruction of the majestic landscape that was a source of American identity and pride.

Whether you are an intercessor, watchman, Christian leader, or politician, this book will provide a very clear and accurate vision of where the United States of America is heading. The future belongs to the Baby Boomers and the need for a praying Church has never been greater.

Trump and the Future of America | Jeremiah Johnson Ministries

It divides into groups rather than uniting across groups; it offers a cogent attack on the injustices and lies of the past and present, rather than an inspiring vision of an America that will be.
